

UKA Code of Conduct parents

As a parent or carer of a child taking part in our club, we would like you to:- The Essentials

- ✓ Make sure your child has the right kit for the session as well as enough food and drink
- ✓ Try to make sure your child arrives to sessions on time and is picked up promptly” or let us know if you are running alter or if your child is going home with someone else
- ✓ Complete all consent, contact and medical forms and update us straight away if anything changes
- ✓ Make sure your child wears any protective kit we provide for them
- ✓ Maintain a good relationship with your child’s coach and catch up with them as much as you can about your child’s development
- ✓ Talk to us if you have any concerns about any part of your child’s involvement – we want to hear from you

Behavior

- ✓ Try and learn about your child’s sport and what it means to them
- ✓ Take the time to talk to your child about what you both want to achieve through sport
- ✓ Remember that children get a wide range of benefits from participating in sport, like making friends, getting exercise and developing skills and discipline. It is not all about wins and losses
- ✓ Listen when your child says they don’t want to do something
- ✓ Behave positively on the side-line – shout encouragement, say “well done’ and let your children know you are proud of what they are doing
- ✓ Think about how the way you react and behave effects not just your child but other children too
- ✓ Lead by example when it comes to positive behavior on the side-lines: or let other parents take their cues form you, as well as form us
- ✓ Accept the officials judgment and do not enter the matted area
- ✓ Use social media responsibly when talking about what goes on at our club, by behaving in the same way on line as you would in person
- ✓ Talk to your child about embracing good etiquette and sportsmanship
- ✓ Encourage your child to play by the rules
- ✓ Ensure that your child understands their code of conduct

As a parent, we understand you have the right to:

- ✓ Be assured that your child is safeguarded during their time with us
- ✓ See any of our policies and procedures at any time
- ✓ Know who the welfare officer responsible for your child is and have their contact details
- ✓ Be involved and contribute towards decision within he club or activity

- ✓ Know what training and qualifications our staff has
- ✓ Be informed of problems or concerns relating to your child
- ✓ Know what happens if there is an accident or injury, be informed if your child is injured and see records of any accidents
- ✓ Have your consent sought for anything outside of our initial consent form, such as permission to go on trips or photography
- ✓ Have any concerns about any aspect of your Childs welfare listened to and responded to

We expect all parents and carers with PR to follow the behaviors and requests set out in this code. If any parent behaves in a way, which contradicts any of, the points set out above; we will address the problem straight away with the parent and aim to resolve the issue.

Persistent concerns or breaches may result in parents being asked not to attend competitions if their attendance is considered a risk to the welfare and enjoyment of young participants.

Continued issues and repeated breaches of this code may result in us regrettably asking your child to leave the club permanently, something we never want to do.
